

THE TOILERS' TROUBLES.

CHICAGO STRIKING CARPENTERS TO RESUME WORK IN A FEW DAYS.

Some of the Men Return to Work This Morning, but Are Called Out—The New York Carpenters' Troubles Satisfactorily Adjusted—Milwaukee Boss Carpenters Yield to Their Employees.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—The striking carpenters read in the afternoon papers of Saturday and the morning papers of Sunday that the arbitration committees had come to an agreement that work was to be resumed for the New England carpenters, and that those waiting for orders from the strikers' headquarters many of them went to work this morning. When this fact was reported at the carpenters' hall, the men refused to let them off. Secretary Howard of the Carpenters' Council says the men will not be allowed to return to work, and that the dispute between the men and the bosses has been fully settled, and this will in all probability be the accomplishment before the end of the day. The carpenters at the stock yards, who had resolved to go on strike this morning, evidently thought better of it, as they went to work as usual.

Gave in to the Bosses.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—A visit to the planing mills, box factories, and sash and door and bld factories this morning developed the fact that the strikers had for the most part given in to the terms of the bosses, and were back to work as usual. About three-fourths of the strikers are now at work, and it is understood that the remainder will go back to-morrow.

The New York Carpenters.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The carpenters of this city as a body did not have to strike to-day to enforce their demands for eight hours as a day's work. There were but few of them to be seen at their meeting hall this morning.

Then the men who in their 200 houses had granted the demand, and that only thirty-five had refused. In the latter places the men were to be seen in the streets, and held later at which authentic reports of the condition of affairs will be made and committees appointed to visit the shops on strike.

It is to be noted that the strike is settled within a week. The house smiths did not go on strike to-day, their demands having been granted, and the entire police force was on reserve duty in case their services were needed, but far no trouble have called for their interference.

The carpenters' strike, which the headquarters show that only 12 men are out of work. Only forty shops are holding out.

The Milwaukee Carpenters.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 5.—A meeting of nearly 1,000 carpenters was held at West Side Hall last night to consider the strike question. All but one-third of the contractors having yielded the eight-hour day the question discussed was whether the employees of the remaining third should quit work to-morrow. The Free Soil and the Federation Trades opposed this, and its advice to delay striking a week longer and give the contractors further time was finally heeded and accepted. The strike was suspended. If it becomes necessary to strike all of the carpenters in the city will go out and demand $2.50 per day besides the eight-hour day. Their pay is now from 17 to 25 cents per hour.

Merging Two Unions.

FALL RIVER, Mass., May 5.—At yesterday's meeting of the Trades Council, representatives of the Amalgamated and Protective Weavers' Union expressed themselves in hearty accord with the plan to merge the two unions and to nominate a joint committee to manage the new organization. There are 15,000 members here, but 4,000 Union members, the plea of the outsiders being that they do not know which body to join.

An Offer Accepted.

BOSTON, Mass., May 5.—The steam-fitters of Boston have decided to accept the offer of the Steam-fitters' Association of nine hours per day for six days in the week, without reduction in wages.

The Mason Builders' Association has notified the Building Laborers' Union, that its request for an eight-hour day, will be granted, and it is to be expected that the threatened strike of 2,000 laborers will be averted.

For 45 Cents an Hour.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 5.—Masons and bricklayers to the number of 700 have gone on a strike for 45 cents an hour. The bosses offer 43 cents.

Coal Miners Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 5.—Six hundred coal miners struck day at Belaire and Cambria, O., against the use of the scuttle.

FILLED HIM WITH SQUIRREL SHOT.

A Texarkana Negro Shoots the Despoiler of His Domestic Happiness.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 5.—The high waters of Red River have driven out many of the negroes. Quite a number have found refuge here, among the number a fine yellow fellow from Sutton's plantation. Last night that darkie was discovered in bed with Henry Hannan's wife, the widow of the guilty woman, during the discoveries. The negro was soon discovered to be the mother of eleven children. When Hannan appeared and comprehended the situation, he promptly placed up a double-barrel shotgun and fired two barrels into the black Ostellio's body, the bleeding victim, with about a pound of shot. The negro is now reported to be dead. It is thought the wounds will prove fatal. Hannan has not been arrested and it is likely he will be, as he is respected by both whites and blacks in his neighborhood, who unanimously endorse his action.

EXCITED DEPOSITORS.

Several Financial Institutions at Norris-town, Pa., Embarrassed.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., May 5.—There was considerable excitement about the Montgomery National Bank this afternoon when the doors of the bank were opened. The office of the bank, the Montgomery and the Trust and Deposit company, and the Trust and Deposit company, this morning made a deposit of one-half of $75,000 and other depositors brought in cash, so that the deposits almost equaled the withdrawal. The Trust company had a heavy deposit, about 10:30 o'clock suspended payment, awaiting the arrival of cash. At 11:30 a. m. the bank was closed. About twenty depositors are awaiting the resumption of payments. An official says if they can get all the money, no receiver may be necessary. He said depositors were amply secured. All that is needed is time to realize on securities.

Railroad Election.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 5.—The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad Co. was held to-day and the following Board of Directors elected: Henry W. Oliver, President; John W. Chalfant, M. K. Moorhead, J. D. Cullen, Wm. H. Singer of Pittsburgh, Theodor Shendor, Solon Humphreys and Charles H. Stroh of New York. The annual report of the company showed an increase in the earnings of $7,292,74.

Natural Gas, Prodigy.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 5.—At the annual meeting of the Philadelphia Natural Gas Co. to-day the treasurer's report was read and showed gross earnings of $3,162,100 and expenditures of $3,000,000. The report shows a reduction in the net debt of the company during the year of $783,200.

The Elks' Hop.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—The charter of New York Lodge, No. 1, B. P. of Elks, has been suspended by the Exalted Grand Ruler, Dr. Simon Quinlan of Chicago, and the Grand Secretary, Arthur C. Morland, has been removed from office for intrigue in attempting to prevent by influence proceeding in the case of New York, the Grand Lodge of Cleveland in July next.

A CHINESE MYSTERY.

An Alleged Lepper at a Chinese Laundry Spirited Away.

A somewhat vague report reached the Four Courts this morning, that one John Lung was suffering from something very much like leprosy at the Chinese laundry concern of Park Avenue and Eleventh street, and that a policeman discovered the case to a brother officer, adding that John was in a very horrible condition, and if he wasn't suffering from leprosy he would be a public nuisance to the city. The officer added that he should report the case to the Health Department right away.

In fact Dr. Dudley's office later this morning disclosed the fact that no report had reached the Commissioner. The doctor added to the police that John was a sick man in the house, and insisted on his premises being searched. In the rooms above the laundry the police found a boy who was a sick man in the house, and insisted on his premises being searched. In the rooms above the laundry the police found a boy who was known and added that the police made any report the matter could be referred to the Health Department.

The police made no foundation for such reports, especially when a disease of an exceptionally objectionable character was reported.

Chief Dispensary Physician Price also stated that no report had reached him.

The Post-Dispatch reported that the laundry was located on Park Avenue and Eleventh street.

He found the proprietor, Mr. Chung Lung, busy writing a letter to his relatives in China.

John Lung, a sick man in the house, and insisted on his premises being searched. In the rooms above the laundry the police found a boy who was known and added that the police made any report the matter could be referred to the Health Department.

When a formal report is made to the police or the Health Department the police will hold a hearing to ascertain, and correct diagnosis of the Chinaman's case may be forthcoming.

THE LATRUP CRUSADERS.

How Mrs. Foster, Leader of the Movement, Eaved Arrest and Secured Counsel.

Mrs. Jennie Foster of Lathrop, Mo., arrived in this city this morning and at once went to the office of ex-Gov. Charles P. Johnson, whom she secured in the impending trial of the woman crusaders of Lathrop. Mrs. Foster led the force which intercepted the hearse wagon which was coming from a neighboring railroad town to Lathrop, and after throwing the load of the wagon smashed the kugs in.

The proceedings against the ladies were in progress. All but one-third of the contractors having yielded the eight-hour day the question discussed was whether the employees of the remaining third should quit work to-morrow. The Free Soil and the Federation Trades opposed this, and its advice to delay striking a week longer and give the contractors further time was finally heeded and accepted.

Then the men who in their 200 houses had granted the demand, and that only thirty-five had refused. In the latter places the men were to be seen in the streets, and held later at which authentic reports of the condition of affairs will be made and committees appointed to visit the shops on strike.

Only three more vote Sundays in the great trip-to-Europe contest of the lady teachers.

The popularity of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH with readers and advertisers was demonstrated in a remarkable way yesterday.

The advertising columns of yesterday's POST-DISPATCH were the results of letting the advertisers know what they are getting for their money.

The capitalists and workmen of St. Louis should exert themselves to the utmost to score a victory for the principle of arbitration in the present crisis.

WHEN Senator INGALLS calls himself a poor man he means doubtless that he is poor by comparison with some of his fellow Senators. His fortune is estimated at only $600,000.

In a guessing contest as to which is the most pharisaical and hypocritical newspaper in the country we guess that pretty nearly every editor would guess the New York Evening Post.

EVEN the supporters of MCKINLEY's rubber tariff bill admit that it should be "improved before enactment." It would be very easy to "improve" it by simply cutting its tail off just behind its ears.

DOUBTLESS the result of the recent elections in Paris has much to do with BOULANGER's change of mind with regard to his return to France. He has only two adherents in the Paris Municipal Council.

A DEMOCRATIC House permitted the Republican minority to discuss the Mills bill from the 2d of April to the 20th of July. A Republican House thinks the McKinley bill cannot survive more than two days of discussion and exposure.

In the thousands of ballot coupons placed in the hands of the people by yesterday's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH there is opportunity for the friends of the teacher lowest in the list of candidates in the trip-to-Europe contest to place her among the Senate.

In looking over the field of Kentucky thoroughbreds in the race for Senatorial honors the stately figure of JOHN G. CARLISLE looms up as prime favorite. Mr. CARLISLE has won all the honors in the House, and is peculiarly fitted for the Senate.

FAIR agreements between the local employers and employees in which the interests of both are reasonably considered will be worth thousands of dollars to them and the city. What may be conceded in a compromise does not compare with the loss in a strike.

The appearance of yesterday's thirty-six-page SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH was something of a surprise even to those who have grown accustomed to expect "big things" from the popular Sunday paper. It contained 140 columns of reading matter, the two next largest Sunday morning papers containing, respectively, 101 and 94 columns.

NEWSPAPER readers are getting from editorial articles just now a perfect deluge of misinformation about the recent and decisions of the United States

Supreme Court on the right of States to regulate commerce and prevent the sale of imported goods. It seems impossible for the court to put a decision in language so plain that newspaper critics will not be based upon total perversions of its scope and meaning.

A RECORD BREAKER.

Yesterday's thirty-six page SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH broke the record all around. While it gave its readers 25 percent more reading matter than was given by the Globe-Democrat and 75 percent more than any other morning paper, it was favored with a larger advertising patronage than has ever appeared in any single issue of the DAILY or SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. As compared with last year, the record is unrivaled. On May 5, 1889, the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH contained just 64 columns of paid advertising, while the issue of yesterday contained 112 columns, an increase of 48 columns, or 75 percent in volume in twelve months.

This growth in the advertising patronage of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH does not represent any sudden spurt or special effort. It is the legitimate result of a growth in circulation, which in twelve months has placed the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH first in city circulation and second only to one newspaper in general circulation. Fully nine-tenths of the advertising which appears in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH is intended for city readers, and when the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH guarantees, as it does, both to its readers and to its advertisers, that it reaches a larger number of readers in the city of St. Louis than can be reached by any other medium, it is only natural that it should be favored in the matter of advertisements.

We have only to add that the POST-DISPATCH is the only newspaper in St. Louis whose claim to circulation has been verified by a vigorous and impartial examination of its books.

TO THE CHILDREN.

The affection for and loyalty in the interest of their favorite teachers exhibited by the school children are bright and pleasing incidents of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH trip-to-Europe contest which afford almost as much gratification to the public as to the teachers.

GEN. JOHN BIDWELL, a Prohibition candidate for Governor of California some years ago, has caused all his grapevines to pull up to prevent the making of wine on his place.

CHARLES ALBERT VICTOR was provided with a residence by the Maharajah of Jeyapore. He had quail fights, dog fights, buffalo fights and elephant fights all served up for him in one day.

KAISER WILLIAM seems rather friendly to the Jews than otherwise. He frequently invites an old friend, Dr. Sommer, to the palace, and has also appointed a Hebrew named Reichenberg to be one of his private secretaries.

again. But he will have in his favor a general recognition of the fact that he can come nearer filling Beck's place in the Senate than any other Kentuckian. The same qualities that enabled him along with the Kentucky delegation to take Beck's place in the House when Beck was elected to the Senate pre-eminently fit him for the senatorial succession.

OUR ST. LOUIS STORE.

Nov. 25, 1888. We bought out the Model Clothing Co., formerly at Nos. 213 and 215 Broadway. Nov. 1, 1889, we moved into our present large and commodious quarters, occupying the entire building. It is the handsomest and most complete clothing establishment in the city. Mr. J. L. H. MACKINLAIN, who has had sole supervision since Oct. 1, 1889. The business has increased with marvellous rapidity. The growth is healthy, a certain for the future. The secret of our success is in our business. Honest, good, money made, with low prices and truthful advertising form a combination that cannot overcome.

CAN THE BOARD APPOINT?

ANOTHER QUESTION FOR THE COURTS DEVELOPS IN SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

Director Bosley Says That If Messrs. Macklin and Rogers Are Ousted and the Millerites Attempt to Fill the Vacancies, Except by Election, They Will Be Expelled—A Special Meeting.

There has arisen in School Board affairs another question which will have to be decided in the courts in case Messrs. Rogers and Macklin, or either of them, should be ousted to-morrow. It is whether the board would have a right to fill such a vacancy by appointment. Mr. Bartholdi and the Director from the Sixth District in an interview Saturday said that in case Messrs. Macklin and Rogers, or either of them, were defeated and unseated that nothing would suit the Aulerites better than to have an election at large and thus secure an expression of public opinion on the School Board fight. This challenge was made known to Mr. Miller, the leader of the faction in opposition to the present organization of the board, and when asked what he thought about it, he said he had nothing to say except that the rules prevented the acceptance of the challenge. The Drabille law which had only a few days ago been declared constitutional by the Supreme Court made it mandatory upon the board to fill all vacancies which occurred in directorships at large, by appointment.

There are some members of the board on the Auler side who differ with Mr. Miller, however, as to the construction of the rules and will, if it should become necessary, from making an election. The new, and what will undoubtedly prove an interesting point to those who watch School Board affairs, was first sprung by Director Bosley in an interview with a POST-DISPATCH reporter this morning. He was asked whether he thought there was any possibility of the Aulerites ever getting enough members again to control the board.

ENJOY THE BOARD.

"I don't know," he said. "Stranger things have happened. There is no doubt that Mr. Bartholdi could easily be elected, and if he were elected, the Aulerites would have any difficulty in electing Mr. Seeliger's successor. Should Mr. Bolman be ousted Mr. Bouyer, I think, will certainly be elected, and he will be a good man, side by side as good as they have ever been, as far as the districts are concerned."

What is to happen now, in the majority will have the selection of the directors at large to fill the places of Messrs. Macklin and Rogers in case they are ousted, and that will decide the ultimate fate.

"Yes it would if they could make the appointments, but they can't."

"Because the rules do not permit them to do so."

"Mr. Miller says that the rules make it mandatory on the board to fill such vacancies by appointment."

"I read what he said, but with all due respect to him, and I would like to see the occasion arise he will have to prove that he is right in the courts before the board will be allowed to proceed in the matter which I just from his interview contemplated."

"In other words, should Mr. Macklin or Mr. Rogers be ousted and the board attempt to fill the vacancies by appointment the Millerites will be enjoined?"

"Exactly."

"On what grounds?"

"On the grounds that under the board rules of the School Board has been called by President Auler for a special meeting for the purpose of calling an election to fill the vacancy caused by School Director Reimer. The regular meeting of the board is to be held to-morrow evening a week, and the election of a new President will be held the following evening. The purpose of the election is to fill a vacancy which a member can be expelled. For the Millorites to attempt to appoint any man to fill a vacancy at large would certainly be a high-handed and unconstitutional act. It is impossible to prevent it, if it is possible to prevent it."

A SPECIAL MEETING

ESTERDAY morning Gen. Wesley Merritt, Commander of the Department of the Missouri, arrived in the city, accompanied by the members of his staff, and registered at the Southern. He was escorted to the train at Fort Leavenworth by the Sixth Infantry Band, and a large detachment of cavalry, all in uniform, who were on guard of honor, and all the officers of the garrison to bid their old commander farewell.

ESTABLISHING HEADQUARTERS.

The latest news mentioned in connection with the election in the Fourth District is that of Mr. Theodore Sessinghaus, the miller. It is very probable that either Mr. Sessinghaus or Mr. Miller will be elected. The representative of the German-Americans.

School Director Rogers, whose title is still in dispute, was asked this morning whether the board would have to call an election at large in case he was declared ineligible, said the board would have to do so.

"I don't know," he said. "I have had enough of trying to perform a public service for nothing."

THE SECOND DISTRICT POLICE COURT.

An Apple Woman and Her Escort—Politics in Court—A Large Docket.

When Judge Anderson entered the Third District Police Court room this morning about fifty policemen were seated around the room waiting for the court to open. All the visitors' seats were filled by black, white and yellow citizens, who were present to see what their citizens were going to do, and to bid their good-bye as they were on route for the Workhouse.

"Open the court Mr. Marshal," said the Judge. The first case called was Johanna McNaular and James Hogan charged with being drunk and disorderly on the street. The Marshal, a stout, burly-looking man, was made a captain of volunteers in 1861 and received a commission as quartermaster of regiments in 1862, but promoted to adjutant in 1863, the final rank he now holds.

KANSAS CITY, May 6.—Fred Swanson, a little seven-year-old boy, is behind the scenes in the Kansas City (Kan.) political arena for the assault on E. M. Hitchens, a young man 21 years old, which may prove fatal. It appears that the boy overheard Hitchens make a remark reflecting on his sister who was absent, and, after an excited outburst, in his opinion of the young boy picked up a stone and dealt him a crushing blow on the head. Hitchens fell on the ground unconscious and was carried to a hospital in a serious condition. The assault occurred in Chelsea Park yesterday afternoon and created much excitement.

Polish Anniversary.

Yesterday was the ninety-ninth anniversary of the adoption of the last constitution of the Polish Empire, and about 2,000 Poles who are making St. Louis their home celebrated the occasion. There was a parade from Mound and Ninth streets to St. Louis Hall, where the public meeting was held. The procession was a rather picturesque affair, many of the marchers wore costumes of national dress and color. At the head several Polish songs were sung, and the speeches by Mr. and Mrs. Rajski, Miss Rejek and Mr. Jacob Jakubowski. In the evening at St. Louis Hall there was an entertainment, in the course of which five acts sang entitled "John Sobieski III."

Polish Anniversary.

Yesterday was the ninety-ninth anniversary of the adoption of the last constitution of the Polish Empire, and about 2,000 Poles who are making St. Louis their home celebrated the occasion. There was a parade from Mound and Ninth streets to St. Louis Hall, where the public meeting was held. The procession was a rather picturesque affair, many of the marchers wore costumes of national dress and color. At the head several Polish songs were sung, and the speeches by Mr. and Mrs. Rajski, Miss Rejek and Mr. Jacob Jakubowski. In the evening at St. Louis Hall there was an entertainment, in the course of which five acts sang entitled "John Sobieski III."
